Mr J. Harrison Garrett

My dear Sir. I am so situated at present that it is impossible for me to call to see you at such times when you are in your office. I have made several ineffectual attempts to see you, which together with absence from the city, and sickness of my wife, has been the cause of my delay in making return sooner. I enclose you my check for $46.⁷⁵/₁₀₀ and a statement, with several of the Gold prices that I failed to get enough for to net you face value, and as a consequence withdrew them. Hoping to be able to see you soon personally I remain

Yours truly

J^r Harrison Garrett Esq.

Dear Sir: I send you by this mail a catalogue of our next sale, and beg to call your attention to the beautiful "Baltimore Town Piece," No 848. The price you have, is too poor to occupy a place in your splendid collection. It cost you $23.⁰⁰ in the Bushnell sale. The City, Ely, and in fact none of the fine collections since for many years contained this piece. All your other Maryland pieces are very fine, and I am very anxious that you should have this, as an opportunity to possess so fine a one may never occur again. I sent it with some other rare pieces to Mr Newton in Phila. yesterday for examination, as he will not be able to attend the sale in person. I think it will bring about $50. to $60. If you want me to buy it for you, will do so free of commission, and take yours at cost in exchange, would love to see you have the piece. Lot 874 is my individual property. This you have not at all, this with 875 & 501. you ought to have, but let all go, only secure the Spanish Bay

Baltimore Iron Pipe, as I am sure that you will wait many years before an opportunity again offers to secure a perfect specimen. Trusting that you and your family are well, and having a pleasant time, I remain

Very truly yours

Mr J Harrison Garrett.

Dear Sir. The Auction Sale brought out a great many of the best and most advanced collectors. Everything is of the first order, and genuine. He was a very learned "Numismatist" and fully competent to judge the genuineness of everything he bought. and he would only buy the finest that could be had.

I secured everything but 1901 & 1857 dollars. The first 108 - sold for $16.00 and the latter 140 for $12.00 I secured St 117. at $110.00 I had made up my mind to pay at least $150.00

At the close of the Sale Mr. Fossaro offered me $120.00 for it. The most important piece in the collection is the Washington Half Dollar dot 407.

That is positively "Unique" I had no idea from the Catalogue what it was, but as soon as I saw it made up my mind to buy it for you. Haseltine run it up to $124.00 I got it at $125.00 I consider it worth $250.00. Parmer paid $650.00 for a Summers Island six piece, some years ago. This is piece in my judgment is preferable. 408. I bought for $17.00, for this Prof. Button paid $60.00. I was told ^{this} by those who saw at the sale when he purchased it. I don't know this piece was over looked, by collectors. except that Mr. Logan forgot or neglected to state in his description, that it is the thin planchet. I want to call your attention to the two 1793 cents in Frossard's sale. They are the Parson cents. For the "Ameri" Mr Parson paid $125.00. This I may see at your bid of $175.00 but the counter cent is beyond all question the know. You remember Frossard sent it to you on approval at $300.00 you showed it to me, and I afterwards saw it exhibited at Benger's in the presence of all the prominent dealers and collectors at the Crosby sale, and it was universally acknowledged by all present to be the finest ever seen. If I had known that these cents were

You ought by all means have them both. I would like per mission to increase my bids to the wreath. I may not get them at those prices, but I think I can, if they can be had cheaper so much cheap as I can. I would love to see you have these prices in much pleasure to me as it would to you. Please advise me

667 to 677 BROADWAY,

New York, June 26 1883

Mr J Harrison Garrett,

Dear Sir, Most of the lots you bid on & seemed, amounting in all to about $35.00 I got 721 - at 5.00 8842 @ 775. 888 @ 213. 966 - 2.25 1022 @ 400. 1209 @ 1.25 and a few other lots with all the badges 1395 to 1402 at from 15 to 30 cts. each. I got everything very cheap. There were really few good things in to-day's sale, lots of trash, and very badly described, I scratched a number of your bids yesterday on that account.
723 sold for $24.00 double its

GRAND CENTRAL HOTEL
You left it at my discretion and I made up my mind to bid 11 or 12 dollars. it is very thin, and poor gold. 1193 is a very desirable piece. it sold for 26.⁵⁰ a big price. I suppose if competition had offered. it would have brought $50.00. Tomorrow things will be more lively. I will have to devalue your bids on some of the pieces to secure them. will examine everything very carefully, and if necessary will go 1-2-3 or 4 bids higher to secure them.
The "Naked Bust." Washington Cent, you cannot afford to let go for less than $125.00. I can tell to-morrow how things are going. Hope I can buy as cheap as I did yesterday and to-day
Yours truly
G. W. M. B. Moore

Mr J Harrison Garrett.

Dear Sir. I was very successful to-day, both as regards the number of pieces bought, and the low prices at which they were secured. Burgess seem to be holding off for the Crosby sale, I expect to be salted before the week is over. Parnelle is here and I suppose he will make things lively on the Colonials. You will see by the invoice inclosed of to-days sale that I got the gun for you. Parnelle has a note to it, and says it is fully as rare as an 1804 dollar and estimates it cheap at $300.
I bought for you a cheap lot of business today. Hope to be as successful during the week.

I will forward first thing in the morning. Went to the P & C. and Adams' after the sale but they would not receive money packages so late in the day. Will you be kind enough to send me a N. Y. draft for $200. on a/c.
I will need more money than I thought I would. Tell C/o Bangs & Co. and oblige
Yours truly
Geo W. McManis

GRAND CENTRAL HOTEL.

New York, April 11 1883

Mr J Harrison Garrett.

Dear Sir I was not quite as successful to-day. I bought 146 - 1853 $\frac{1}{4}$ dollar. It is very handsome and a rare gem. It is far superior to the one sold on 10th ~~at~~ price \$23.00 162 - sold for 32.50 226 for 46.00 297 for 93.00. I bought a number of pieces you will see. I talk about an 1805 $\frac{1}{2}$ dime. I saw one to-day. That is worth two of the one sold to-day. It is without ^{cloride} the most beautiful piece in existence. You ought to have it with the 1802. By the way. I am sure if your 1802. was put up to-morrow it would sell for \$700.⁰⁰ \$100. is the price of the 1805. if I can

I will try to get it on approval.
Will see you Saturday and deliver over the guns.

Yours truly
